A WORD OF DESCRIPTION

The prevailing type of song in this book is the unison melody with a strictly piano accompaniment. Such a book is admirably suited for medium-large and large Sunday schools and especially to such schools do we commend this book. The majority of the songs are new or have never appeared in a book before. Those not new in this book have been carefully selected and each song, whether new or not, will prove useful. An examination of the songs in this pamphlet will show, better than it can be told, the attractiveness and availability of the book.

PRICES

Published only in full cloth covered boards at 35 cents per copy postpaid; $3.00 per dozen or $25.00 per hundred, transportation charges borne by the purchaser.

ORCHESTRA SCORE

Believing that the time has come when the demand for a song book with orchestra score warranted the work of preparing the orchestration, Mr. Wilson has prepared a score for "The King's Message." The music of the book lends itself readily to the orchestra and the work having been done by such a capable, artistic and trained editor as Mr. Wilson, the use of the orchestra will add immensely to the music of the school when "The King's Message" is used.

Mr. Wilson has prepared the orchestration for ten instruments in eight books. The instruments are:—1st and 2nd violins, viola, 'cello, bass, flute, clarinet, 1st and 2nd cornets and trombone. The 1st and 2nd cornets have been printed together in one book and the 'cello and bass together in one book.

The printing has been done octavo size on good paper and the books are well bound in cloth covered boards each book being bound in a different color so as to readily distinguish the instrument.

This orchestration may be purchased as a set or the books for only such instruments as are needed may be purchased separately. The prices are $1.50 per book postpaid; $10.00 for the set of eight by express collect.
